$Prize Money for Select Divisions$

New This Year

Prize Money: $250 will be awarded to the gold medal winners in six select divisions. This is the first time prize money has been offered to Masters Judoka. Divisions must have a minimum of six contestants to be eligible for prize money. The divisions with prize money available are:

*The most populated men's division.

*The most populated women's division.

Women's Open Weight: 30+

Men's Open Weight: 30-39, 40-49 & 50+

*If more than one division is the most populated, a blind draw will determine the prize money division.

Novice Divisions: Rokyū-Yonkyū divisions will be contested (no arm bars). Novice athletes may fight brown & black belt divisions in addition to their novice divisions for an additional $25.

Newaza Divisions: A groundwork only competition will be held on day one of the Pan-Am's. All judo rules will be observed. A player may only come to his/her feet briefly while transitioning into a judo move (choke, armlock, turnover), otherwise matte will be called if either player stands up. If a match ends with no score a decision will be awarded to the more dominant player. There will be no overtime period. The Modified Double Elimination system will be used for the Newaza division. See Newaza entry form for age and weight divisions. Entry fee is $15.

New England Cup: Awarded to the New England based dojo with the best medal take (Gold 5pts, Silver 3pts, Bronze 2pts, 0 pts for uncontested gold).

Friday: November 13th. Kata and Newaza competition.

Saturday: November 14th Shiai, Open & Team competition.

Rules & Regulations:

Article 1: For the Shiai Tournament, the age division of the participant is determined by his/her birth date on November 14, 2009.

Article 2: A photocopy of your passport or your birth certificate with a picture must be included with your registration.

Article 3: At the weigh-in you must present a document with a picture proving that you are affiliated with a National Federation in good standing with the IJF.

Article 4: The Rules and Regulations of the International Judo Federation are applied. Only duration of the bouts will be modified and fixed at three (3) minutes. For the age categories of sixty (60) and more, the duration of the bouts will be two and a half (2-1/2) minutes. The blue judogi is mandatory.

Article 5: The Golden Score Formula is in application.

Article 6: The competition system will be based on the number of participants in a weight/age category.

Golden Score Rules

Article 1: When the duration of the bout has come to an end and that the advantages and penalties are equal to each other, the results will be decided by “Golden Score”.

Article 2: The Time Keeper will indicate the initial time on the clock.

Article 3: All scores indicated on the board will be erased.

Article 4: The referee will begin the bout normally. No rest period will be allowed between the initial bout and the beginning of the “Golden Score” bout.

Article 5: The first score given will determine the winner of the bout.

Article 6: If no advantage (or penalty) is scored during the “Golden Score” bout, the result will be decided by the referee and the corner judges that will indicate the winner by raising the flags with the appropriate color. It will be indicated on the sheets as a victory by “Hantei”.

Team Tournament Rules & Regulations

Article 1: The team tournament is the last event indicated on the Championship program.

Article 2: The Team Tournament is comprised of male teams of five (5) judokas and female teams of three (3) judokas competing separately.

Article 3: The teams must be comprised of judokas from the same National Federation. Only one judoka that does not comply with these requirements may be integrated in the team as a “guest”.

Article 4: The team may name a replacement that must be indicated and declared at the registration of the team. This judoka will be invited to receive a medal even if he/she did not participate in any bouts.

Article 5: Once a judoka has been replaced he or she can not re-enter the tournament.

Article 6: The team must align themselves in order of weight starting from the light weight and must keep this order throughout the whole tournament.

Article 7: All male teams must have and maintain a minimum total age of 200 years by adding the ages of all five team members. This age rule does not concern the female teams.

Article 8: A replacement may be integrated to a team at all levels anytime of the competition before the initial bow of each team bout. The referees must make sure to verify that the replacement is correctly registered on the match sheet at the time of registration of the team. The replacement must align himself / herself in the proper weight order and in the case of the male team, the sum of the ages must not be less than 200 years of age.

Article 9: The number of teams per country must be announced at the beginning of the tournament.

Article 10: The medals will be awarded to the first, second and third place teams.

Article 11: The duration of the bout is fixed at three (3) minutes no matter what the age of the participant may be.

Article 12: The rule of the “Golden Score” does not apply except in the case of a tie as stipulated in article 14.

Article 13: All players disqualified by direct hansokumake because of an action that could endanger his opponent or for unethical behavior will be eliminated from the tournament and in this case may not be replaced by the team replacement player.

Article 14: The results of the matches (bouts) by a team will be established by the number of individual victories. In the event of a tie, the team with the highest amount of points will be declared the winner. In the event of a tie in points, the tied matches will be decided by compulsory using the “Golden Score” rule. In the event that the judokas of the tied matches are unable to participate in the match, the victory will be automatically given to the opposing player. The victory will be given to the team with the greater number of victories of the new matches in question
